City centre

CorTen® steel can be used for various purposes. This urban development project in Copenhagen illustrates this very well. Stairs designed in CorTen® steel take care of the elevation in the landscape and merges into its natural surroundings. The same material was used for the tree grilles, the pattern of which was customized after the design of the architect.

wibio

Extra informatie

Location: Copenhagen, Denmark

Execution date: November, 2010

Customer: Milford

Solutions

- Tree infrastructure