Serpentine Gallery

In the centre of the magnificent Hyde Park, world-famous architect Zaha Hadid designed a new pavilion for the Serpentine Gallery. The building reflects her architectural style. These typical organic shapes were prolonged to the outdoors. The edging encompasses the building and provides a clearly separates pavement and grass. Wibio supplied the made-to-order edgings, which were painted black on the spot.

wibio

Extra informatie

Location: Kensington Gardens Hyde Park London, United Kingdom

Execution date: March, 2013

Customer: Kinley Systems

Architect: Zaha Hadid Architects

Executor: Kinley Systems

Solutions

- Edgings